

There, their, they're. There refers to a place, like "over there."
Their is used to show that something belongs to someone:
that is their car. They're means "they are": such as "they're coming home."

Can you figure out which word to put in each of the blanks?

- THERE
- THEIR
- THEY'RE

_____ not able to swim because the never learned.

The dogs didn't eat _____ dog food.

Let's go play over _____.

The girls need to clip _____ toenails.

_____ is a dog next door.

_____ my best friends.

_____ house is bigger than my house.

What are you doing _____?