

Subjects and Predicates – Draw a line between the subject and predicate of each sentence. Remember, the subject is the person or thing that is doing the action in the sentence.

Example: The dog | bit the mailman.

Killer whales are carnivores, meaning they eat meat.

The doctor forgot where she parked her car.

He jumps higher than a kangaroo.

The boy and the girl like to play soccer together.

Monkeys swing from tree to tree.

Kyle eats soup for breakfast.

Oranges grow on trees.

The book is old and dusty.